Can You Help?

We are very much in need of more people to do some of the jobs on the rota for Sunday services - especially needing intercessors at 10am and also readers for all services.

If anyone feels able to volunteer for these posts, please let Peggy know at peggyside@gmail.com.

Thank you so much.

Blessings, Peggy

If you know of anyone who would like any of the services in church to listen to either as a cd or MP3 please let Di Oliver know 07727270504.

Carriers of Hope and Clothing Coventry

Carriers have just issued the following appeal:

"Can you help us please? We're having problems with our food orders and we're desperately short of Plain Flour, Tuna, any flavour of Jam, Honey, Breakfast Cereals and Tumeric, chilli powder and garlic powder, Spices. We also need Tissues, Toilet Rolls, Wooden Spoons for cooking and Large Pans / Cooking Pots. Last but not least - is there a sewing machine that you no longer need, please. Thanks again for all your support."

Their furniture project needs: white goods; vacuum cleaners; beds (double, single and bunk); tables and chairs suitable for a small home. If you have furniture you are hoping to donate, please phone first to check suitability and drop-off arrangements (or potentially pick-up).

Clothing Coventry are saying:

"We are very busy at the moment, and supporting refugees and homeless with men's clothes and shoes, as always we welcome donations of men's clothes (especially smaller sizes), shoes, bags, suitcases, belts, new underwear and socks etc!

"Did you know we visit all the hotels housing refugees in Coventry every week with clothes, shoes and other essentials? We also support many other charities working with those in need, and help anyone who asks for clothes or shoes if we have the stock available.

"Please hold onto ladies and preschool children's clothes for now, we'll accept these again in the autumn. However we are still accepting children of school age and older clothes, school uniform and school shoes still with life in them."

Particularly during the school holidays I strongly suggest you phone before visiting.
