Positive Pumpkin Carving
A great time was had at our Positive Pumpkin Carving event on Wednesday when 47 children along with parents and grandparents spent a couple of hours in the sunshine in our beautiful churchyard having fun carving pumpkins, doing an I-spy pumpkin trail, learning how being a Christian can be likened to being a pumpkin, drinking hot chocolate and taking home a pumpkin story book.

Family Tea is on Sunday 1st Nov, 5pm-6.30pm. Designed for families (children 0-18yrs), we meet in the Rectory Garden once a month (behind the church car park) Last time we had a great time playing Harvest games and chatting about how God helps us in our parenting! This time, join us for a firepit & marshmallows and our usual toast and toppings.

Quiet Communion: 3rd Nov, 2.30pm A quiet service to pray, reflect and receieve Communion. Open to anyone, whether you're used to coming to church or it's new to you.

City Praise & Prayer: Sun 15th Nov, 6.30pm at Coventry Cathedral. Gathering Christians from all denominations across Coventry, City Praise & Prayer is a fantastic way to join with others to pray for our city and local community.

Coventry City Mission's Giving Tree Project 2026
Make a difference this Christmas to disadvantaged Coventry children and young people.
How?
Please take a ticket from the table at the back of Church, buy a present (items have to be new, sorry no cuddly toys or clothes), place presents unwrapped under the table with your ticket.
Final collection from Church is 29 November 2026 (10am Service).
For ideas on what to buy, see back of the promotion notice on table.
Love from the Payne Small Group.
P.S. Please give generously, as we say every year - even a toy from a bargain shop can make a difference!
